

Directions To Rahoy

From Edinburgh take M9 past Stirling to Junction 10 38 miles
 At Junction 10 turn left onto A84 through Callander to Lochearnhead 28 miles
 At Lochearnhead take A85 to Criarlarich 16 miles

From Glasgow take A82 to Loch Lomond, Tarbet and Criarlarich 54 miles

At Criarlarich take A82 through Tyndrum, Glencoe and Ballachulish to Ballachulish Bridge 36 miles

Cross Ballachulish Bridge and follow A82 towards Fort William. At junction with A861 turn left towards Corran Ferry 4 miles

Cross Corran (Nether Lochaber)-Ardgour Ferry (April-Sept: last ferry is 9.30pm. Oct-March last ferry is 8.00pm. If you miss the last ferry you can drive round Loch Linnhe and Loch Eil via Fort William to Ardgour but this journey takes 1 hour).

Ferry Timetable here.

At Ardgour turn left off of ferry onto A861 to Strontian and continue on A8611 to head of Loch Sunart 13 miles

Turn left onto A884 to Lochaline and continue on A884 to its junction with an unclassified road signposted to Kinlochteacuis and Rahoy Cottages 16 miles

Turn right onto this road and follow it past two inland lochs to the end of the public road at the head of Loch Teacuis 5-6 miles

Go straight ahead along the tarmac road and through the stock gate. Follow this track along the right hand shore of Loch Teacuis and you'll see the cottages. 2-3 miles

It will take approx. 4 hours from Edinburgh and 3.5 hours from Glasgow.